Mighty God: Isaiah 9:6

Pastor Jon Donohue

Advent Week 2: Sunday, December 6, 2020

- Opening Prayer

As we enter this second week of Advent, the busy-ness of the Christmas season is upon us. It's easy to allow the Christmas rush to distract us from the true meaning of the season – Jesus. Take a few moments and focus your heart. Welcome Holy Spirit into your presence. Ask Him to move and speak. Also tell Him you are open to His leading. See what the Lord will do though this special, holy time together.

- Scripture Reading

Psalm 100 A psalm. For giving thanks. Shout for joy to the LORD, all the earth. Worship the LORD with gladness; come before him with joyful songs. Know that the LORD is God. It is he who made us, and we are his; we are his people, the sheep of his pasture. Enter his gates with thanksgiving and his courts with praise; give thanks to him and praise his name. For the LORD is good and his love endures forever; his faithfulness continues through all generations.

- Scripture Reading

Psalm 139:7-12 Where can I go from your Spirit? Where can I flee from your presence? If I go up to the heavens, you are there; if I make my bed in the depths, you are there. If I rise on the wings of the dawn, if I settle on the far side of the sea, even there your hand will guide me, your right hand will hold me fast. If I say, "Surely the darkness will hide me and the light become night around me," even the darkness will not be dark to you; the night will shine like the day, for darkness is as light to you.

- Discussion

1. Share how Jesus has shown Himself strong in your life as Mighty God.
2. In what ways have you been trusting your own might over the might of Jesus? What will you do differently about it this week?

- Communion

Have the communion elements available. Take a few quiet moments and prepare your hearts to partake of Communion. Repent of anything that has hindered your relationship with the Lord. After you have done so, have one person read:

1 Corinthians 11:23-24 On the night when he was betrayed, the Lord Jesus took some bread and gave thanks to God for it. Then he broke it in pieces and said, "This is my body, which is given for you. Do this to remember me."

All partake of the bread together

Then read:

1 Corinthians 11:25-26 In the same way, he took the cup of wine after supper, saying, "This cup is the new covenant between God and his people-- an agreement confirmed with my blood. Do this to remember me as often as you drink it." For every time you eat this bread and drink this cup, you are announcing the Lord's death until he comes again.

All partake of the cup together.

Speak a prayer of thanks for the sacrifice of Jesus' life on the cross for us.

- Prayer

Pray for one another and anything else the Lord brings to mind.

- Benediction

Romans 8:38-39 For I am convinced that neither death nor life, neither angels nor demons, neither the present nor the future, nor any powers, neither height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord.
